Fidelity is a major shareholder in PetroChina, whose parent, China National Petroleum Corporation, provides the Sudanese government with hundreds of millions of dollars in oil revenues that help fund genocide in Darfur.

When Fidelity was told their investments support genocide in Darfur, this was their response: What's yours?